CITY OF GLENDALE'S TV SHOWS CAN BE SEEN ON PBS AFFILIATE'S WORLD CHANNEL

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Award winning television shows about the city of Glendale will now reach a wider audience as they air on Eight, Arizona PBS's World Channel. This innovative digital technology is designed for viewers who do not have cable or satellite, but can access channel 8.3 on their television.

“Partnering with Arizona's PBS station is a new and non-traditional approach to let people outside of Glendale discover all that we have to offer,” said Laurie Berg Sapp, station manager for Glendale 11 TV. “The three TV shows being featured on the World Channel are some of our most requested programming about the city.”

The shows airing on Eight's World Channel include:

- The Making of the Stadium – A documentary profiling the planning and construction of the NFL stadium in Glendale. January 2 at 4:30 p.m.
- The Making of Camelback Ranch – A behind-the-scenes look at the building of Glendale's spring training stadium and exclusive interviews with team executives from the Los Angeles Dodgers and Chicago White Sox. January 9 at 4:30 p.m.
- Glendale's Home Green Home – A documentary showing the incredible two-week construction of Glendale's Platinum LEED certified green home built in partnership with Habitat for Humanity. January 16 at 4:30 p.m.

All three of the TV shows chosen for Eight, Arizona's PBS World Channel have been nominated for or have won numerous awards.
