

GLENDALE'S FROM THE HEART PROGRAM SUMMARY

FROM THE HEART'S MISSION: TO PROMOTE THE POSITIVE DEVELOPMENT OF YOUTH, STRENGTHEN THE CAPABILITIES OF FAMILIES, OR TO ASSIST CITIZENS IN ADDRESSING CRISIS NEEDS.

- FROM THE HEART funding comes from individual and corporate donations. Its cooperating administrative agencies are the Gila River Indian Community and the City of Glendale.
- The Gila River Indian Community is providing a $75,000 match to the 2012 FROM THE HEART fund.
- This year, due to economic conditions, FROM THE HEART will give priority consideration to applications for direct services that address essential needs, including but not limited to food, shelter, clothing, utilities, etc. and to programs that clearly demonstrate they serve Glendale residents in an effective, cost efficient manner.
- All awards are determined by the FROM THE HEART Review Committee appointed by the cooperating administrative agencies. It includes representatives from the administrative agencies, Glendale residents, and representatives from local community organizations and businesses.
- The minimum application request is $2,500. The maximum award will be $20,000. FROM THE HEART average awards are generally in the $5,000 to $15,000 range.
