

911 Memorial

WHEREAS, September 11, 2001, was a defining day in American History and one that forever changed our Nation and the World; and

WHEREAS, our Country's spirit remains unbroken as we remember all who were lost in the attacks on the fateful day in September; and

WHEREAS, we pay tribute to the valiant firefighters, police officers, emergency personnel, and ordinary citizens who risked their lives on and after September 11 so others might live; and

WHEREAS, we salute the continued heroism of the dedicated members of our public safety teams and the thousands of others who work extremely hard each and every day to protect our country, secure our liberty and prevent future attacks; and

WHEREAS, we stand dedicated to the American principles of honor, freedom and democracy that have guided this country from our Founding Fathers to the present.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Elaine Scruggs, Mayor of the city of Glendale, Arizona on behalf of the City Council, do hereby encourage all to join me in recognizing and participating in this special observance of September 11, 2001.

In Witness Thereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 10th day of September 2007.
