

Lions Walk for Sight Day

WHEREAS, Lions International was founded in 1917 and since that time has grown to be one of the world's largest service organizations; and

WHEREAS, Glendale is fortunate to have the Glendale Sunrise Lions Club, the Glendale Evening Lions Club, and the Bellair Lions Club provide services throughout our city; and

WHEREAS, the Glendale Lions Clubs spend countless hours every year raising much-needed funds to purchase eyeglasses for Glendale residents and promote sight conservation citywide; and

WHEREAS, the Lions' Walk For Sight So That Others May See, is an activity that offers everyone in the community a chance to participate in the fight to help raise awareness and assist the Lions clubs' fundraising efforts for people with sight deficiencies.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elaine M. Scruggs, Mayor of the city of Glendale, Arizona, on behalf of the City Council do hereby proclaim March 31, 2007, as and call upon the citizens of Glendale to join me in honoring the efforts of all those who volunteer with the Lions Clubs and support the Lions' Walk for Sight So Others May See.

In Witness Thereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 27th day of March 2007.
